youngsters. The eight Directors of this company had a high ideology of excellence in service and employment creation for the young and ambitious, thus a company was born with an ideology of Rural Employment & Rural Empowerment. Those were also the days when the concept of courier was little known. Therefore they pioneered a path for their organization and impart to it a culture of its own with an accent on ethics and excellence. Today TPC in India has 20 Regional Offices, over 2485 Offices, over 5000 Collection Centers and easily well over 25,000 destinations, where delivery is possible. We have opened offices abroad also.

Achievements: Team spirit and team work has made us the biggest Courier Network in India. We are now an ISO 9001-2008 company. We have also branched out to Singapore, New York, Dubai and Kuwait.

By virtue of our extensive network, lengthy clientele, goodwill and growth, it is undoubtedly the leader in the Indian domestic courier Industry.
