

systemsupports

Director : B. Venugopal

Established : 1999 – Bangalore

Products: We use products that are highly reliable which are amongst the best available in the industry. We have tied up with leaders to ensure that the best possible products are used in delivering our top of the line solutions.

History: Making way in Mysore as a Reseller for power conditioning products in 1999, Infused with entrepreneurial spirit the company has diversified and expanded manifold, giving way to businesses based on sustainable growth, system supports and continues to grow embracing new challenges, expanding boundaries and creating new opportunities. For over 12 years System Supports has operated throughout Karnataka providing high quality and world class power protection and power backup solutions. Today, with our philosophy of delivering highest quality customer focused service, we have been ranked as a highest revenue earner and fastest growing partner. With an intense focus on customer satisfaction System Supports has with customers in various sectors such as home, Home office, SMB, SME, IT & ITES, Hospitality, Manufacturing, Defense, Govt. Organizations etc.

Selected 2012-14

Achievements:

- Winner of Highest Revenue Earner Award from American Power Conversion
- Valued relationship with Industry and Government sectors
- Strong financial presence
- Recognized as leading business partners.

Clean

Ideal Power Supply for any machine that is Spikeless and at the Perfect Frequency.

Green

With Very High Efficiency our Systems ensure Maximum Power Savings.

Uninterrupted

Power Cuts and Interruptions are things of the past with our Proven Systems.

Market: We address market vertically like Defense Sectors, State and Center Government, BFSI, IT, ITES, Service Industry, SMB and all application where Data is critical and is stored and transmitted.

Brand Values: System supports primary business objectives is to satisfy the client's needs and expectations. System Support's high levels of service quality and satisfaction are widely recognized for its quality value and service. We aim to satisfy customers by using products that are highly reliable and which are amongst the best available in the industry.

Promotion: We work on various promotional activities like visibility in the IT magazines, events and promotions. We also advertise in yellow pages and newspapers.

Expansion Plans: System Supports is planning to open branches at Chennai and Hyderabad. Meanwhile the company will be building its new corporate office at Bangalore. This expansion will create 25 new jobs.

Facilities for Staff: System Supports believes that manpower our key asset. Keeping this in mind we offer various stress releasing recreational activities and events like community involvements, year end parties, holidays, celebrations, special holiday trips and family get together.

Mantras to become successful entrepreneur: Strong business ethics, self confidence, professionalism, productive work environment, client satisfaction, dynamic employee engagement and collaborative relationship are the key mantras to become a successful entrepreneur.

Corporate Social Responsibility: System Supports has undertaken social volunteering practices almost from its inception. Wherever possible, we provide funds and other facilities to school children and sports persons. Our commitment to being a good corporate citizen also includes protecting our environment. Our stated mission statement is to lend a helping hand to the underprivileged in our society through support of children in the areas of education and sports.